YOUTH DIVISION - PLEIN AIR CONTEST RULES AND INFORMATION

For one week in June, historic Cedarburg's inviting National Historic District and creekside walkways become the backdrop for hundreds of adult artists from all over the country.

The Cedarburg Cultural Center is offering the same opportunity to students with disabilities while under with its "Plein Air" Painting Competition-Youth Division.

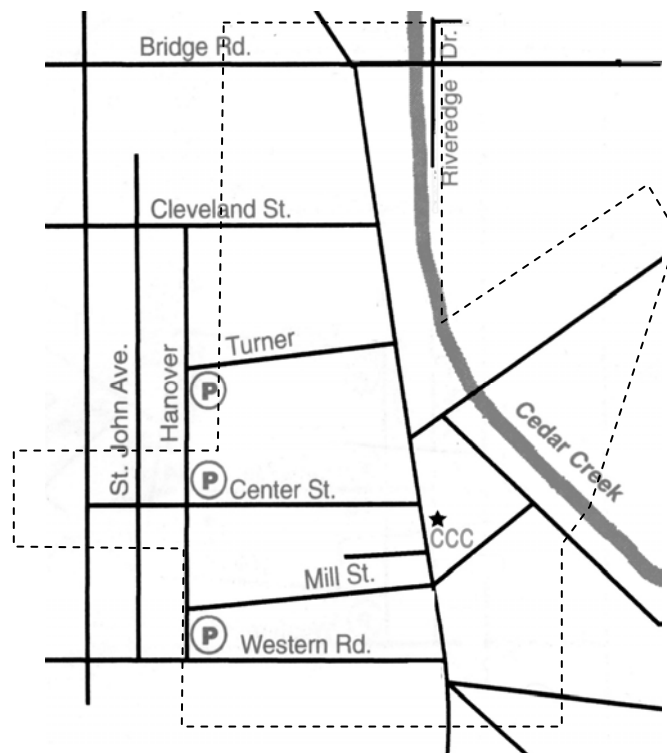

Prizes for first place each age category: 5 & under-$50 / 6-8 - $50 / 9-12 - $75 / 13 - 17-$100

The finished works on canvas or paper should be unframed and close to 11"x14" in size. Entry is $5 for students with disabilities. Each artist can have an unlimited number of stamps, but each artist may enter only one piece in the competition. Each blank canvas or paper must be stamped at the registration table at the Center anytime from June 19-26, 2008, to prove that the work was not started before the contest began.

Have fun getting out into the sunshine with your paints, pencils, crayons or pastels and create a work in your favorite location in or near Cedarburg's National Historic District as outlined by the dashed line in the map below. Please leave your work area as you found it when you arrived. Be creative and please choose your locations safely!!

Feel free to call the Cedarburg Cultural Center at 262/375-3676 or visit us at W62 N546 Washington Avenue, if you have any questions about the Youth Division Contest!
